Before a commercial operator may engage in the business of providing fly-fishing tours, excursions or instruction at the Town's fishing facility (Fairplay Beach), he or she shall first provide the Town Clerk a copy of the current public liability insurance policy with one (1) or more insurance carriers licensed to do business in the State of Colorado who are acceptable to the Town insuring claims and demands made by any person or persons for injuries received in connection with, or arising out of, the commercial operator's use of the Town's fishing facility. Such policy or policies shall contain limits of liability of not less than the monetary limitations for judgments against municipalities provided from time to time by the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act, Section 24-10-101, et seq., C.R.S., or any successor statute. Such policy shall name the Town and the commercial operator as named insured's under such policy and shall be approved by the Town before the commercial operator shall be entitled to use the Town's fishing facility. The commercial operator shall maintain such insurance in full force and effect at all times while using the Town's fishing facility. The subject policy shall require at least ten (10) days' advance notice to the Town prior to cancellation of such policy.

I hereby agree to all the rules and regulations of the Fairplay Beach and Reservoir. Included therein, specific to fly-fishing are the following rules: All fishing shall be done from the shore, or constructed dock or while wading. The use of boats and/or flotation devices is prohibited.

Violators will be subject to fine and/or imprisonment. Anyone removed from the Fairplay Beach and Reservoir will forfeit any and all fees paid, and permit shall be revoked.

I declare, under the penalty of perjury, that this application has been examined by me; that the statements made herein are made in good faith pursuant to applicable tax laws and regulations, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, are true, correct, and complete.
